REGISTRAR: Adelia H.

Changes have been made that I have received. There will be as of last communication with the GSO a Regional Directory this year. To aid in assuring the list of meetings contacts is up to date. I have given a list of all meetings in a District to the DCM of that District. Please aid your DCM when he/she asks for your help. Please contact me for changes by phone, e mail, or snail mail or in person.

FORUM: Lori D.

Lori F., Katie L. and Orville T. shared their Forum experience with the body.

WEBSITE: Kate L.:

Ten members were present. Gave new members a brief orientation. Website bill was received and will forward to the Treasurer. Payment automatically deducted. Suggestions for guidelines of fliers posted on website so members will know what can be allowed. Theron will draft a privacy statement & e mail to committee for approval explaining how training is done for those hitting website. Discussion on excess space available on web site that can be used by Districts. Theron offering technical assistance to any District webmasters needing assistance with there sites but cannot be webmaster. 59th state convention planning flier & mock conference discussion on Google or Google maps for ongoing website committee discussion between area meetings.

PUBLIC INFORMATION: Delois G.

Ten were in attendance. Our group picked the fact cover for the speaker list. At the next area meeting we will be passing out the list to each committee chair. District 12 had their annual New Year's Eve dinner. District 12 also elected a new chairperson, it is Tim H. and all standing committees. I would like to thank everyone who signed up for the speaker list. Remember we will not be going by District we will be going by first names.

CPC: Steve R.

Three people in attendance. District 4,10, represented. Reviewed Steve's letter to professionals.

Made corrections and added CMIA's contact information. John S. expressed need to contact Districts 12's CPC's chair. Requests for AA Fact File literature to mail with letter to professionals $50 worth of Literature.

District 4 planning CPC workshop for clergy in the summer of 2010.

ARCHIVES: Jim D.

Today we are featuring International Conventions because of the upcoming International Convention in San Antonio. We are also featuring Grape Vines.

CORRECTIONS: William H.

Twenty-two persons attended; 11 districts represented-10 need literature. $1000 divided between 10 groups-$100 each. Treasury: Open checking account:$285.85Closing checking balance: $331.10/Savings:$35.46/ 12 new jail releases in January and February. Discussion about jail/facilities directions/ supervisors not having a understanding of how AA corrections work. If you are having a problem, contact Bill for available literature. District 8 shared how they are getting ne volunteers for corrections by getting GSR's @ District to go to one jail meeting. Finding some GSR's volunteering long term. District 4: Huron Valley women's facilities enlarging-going from 2 meetings a week to 6-8 meetings. Some will be back to back for more attendance. District 2: In order to make correction funds better, they re organized and decided corrections money will go to state facilities and the meetings within the District will raise funds for county jail meetings.

GRAPEVINE: Sharon S.

Eight in attendance. All members were given information and explained basic guidelines for being GVR. If you would like to send donations to grapevine, please do by ordering magazine subscriptions for your group or sponsees. They do not accept donations other way. They are solely funded by the sales of magazines, books and other items of interest. Remember the Grapevine is separate entity form the GSO. Our CMIA Literature committee carries a lot of the literature put out by the Grapevine.

SPECIAL NEEDS: Felicia W.

District 4 is planning a special needs workshop for their area. Possibly to take place in June 2010. Roberta L. also compiled a list of hearing impaired meetings in the area and this is available on the HVAI website. District 12 is working on the new hearing impaired meeting started in December. It is named Hands of Acceptance and meets Saturdays 2:00-3:00 at the Ariel club in Flint. Contact Angie @ (810)233-4292. District representitives to compile a list of people available that can do meetings for the home bound or hospitalized.

CMIA32 MEETING in Corunna, MI

Sunday February 7 GSR's and other AA's meet and learning about AA meeting group structure and services.

Corunna is east of Lansing, west of Flint, north of Ann Arbor/Brighton and not far north of I69. See attached map.

GSR MEETING 10-11:30 AM.

GSR'S and GSR "WANNABEE'S" ARE INVITED

"Wannabee's" want to be more knowledgeable about AA meeting agendas, structure and services

Individual and group SPIRITUALITY is a topic. How we can grow our lives spiritually "in all of our affairs," with the spiritual basis of service to others learned in AA will be presented.

Group structure, topics including meetings of group conscience topics, proper group registration and updates for groups, suggested literature for groups, presenting sponsorship at meetings, greeting newcomers and more is on the agenda.

Attend this GSR meeting and stay through service committee meetings, lunch and the General Assembly and participate. View the archives table and the large literature display where you can obtain group literature, videos, CD's and more group and personal use.

Be a friend and bring a friend. Invite AAs at your meeting groups and help us all learn how to Pass On and live the best AA life.

YOU ARE VERY IMPORTANT TO AA. HELP THE 'STILL SICK AND SUFFERING ALCOHOLICS' IN YOUR MEETING GROUPS FIND THE 'PROMISES' IN THEIR LIVES.
WE ARE 'RESPONSIBLE.'
